

I am writing to voice my support for the expansion of Low Power Radio. This service is invaluable to the American public. Low Power Radio gives a voice to under-represented groups, and it does not threaten previously-existing stations. Please expand this diverse type of radio so that more people across the country can enjoy more options on their radio dial!